Chaplain’s Message

Tonight if the first night of Hanukkah, the festival of lights, celebrated by our Jewish brothers. That’s rooted in the book of Maccabees. If you’ve not read the book of Maccabees, I’ll say that it’s not particularly Advent reading, but its good reading for any time. The book of Maccabees is a great book on remaining faithful in the midst of opposition, and I think there is a great lesson of that for us in our own day. We’re not openly persecuted (at least not yet), but I think it’s good for us to be prepared for those options. In this particular passage on the Festival of Lights in Chapter 4 of 1st Maccabees, once Judas Maccabees and the faithful Jews reclaim the temple and Jerusalem from the Greeks, they have to purify the temple. As the Talmud says (which isn't actually in the scripture), there was only enough oil for one night. It was going to take 8 days to produce enough oil that was sanctified for use in the temple, but one night's supply of oil lasted for 8 days, which are the roots of this festival. This festival was celebrated by Jesus in John, Chapter 10, where he's referred to going to up to celebrate the feast of the dedication, the festival of lights. It was wintertime, and even Jesus himself celebrated this great feast and season of Hanukkah.

I think it's good for us for a few reasons to meditate upon this idea of Christ whose own body, the temple of his body was destroyed and was redeemed in the resurrection. Jesus, who is the light of the world, comes into this world as a fulfillment of this great feast. Also, it's great for us to remember our Jewish brothers and sisters, the first to hear and receive the covenant from God, and to be attentive to them. Anti-Semitism has been present always, and has even been in the Church in certain days and ages. As Knights, we should be aware and against that. We're men of fraternity and unity, and while we don't share the recognition of Christ as the Messiah, we share in the promise of God and the covenant. And so, be attentive to our Jewish brothers and sisters in their plight, and rejoice with them as they celebrate this great feast over the next 8 days. Rejoice through the light of Christ coming into this world.

Closing Prayer

WGK Mike Carter: The prayer card is from the canonization of Blessed Father Michael McGivney:

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young into generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body, which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present. Through Christ our Lord, Amen.
