The latest news for members & friends of the Knights of Columbus

Thank you to all who attended the Sept. 18th Gala Event.

Message from our Grand Knight

If there is a busier month than October this fraternal year, then please bring it to my attention. We get rolling right away on the 1st with our Second Annual FALLfest. This was a big hit last year in lieu of the Pandemic-cancelled Harvest Homecoming. Friday will be our standard First Friday Fish Fry with Saturday featuring everyone's favorite Chicken and Dumplings. The cornhole crowd will also be here Saturday evening so we need to keep them hydrated and fed. We must have your help to make this a success:

- FISH FRY SIGN UPS click here
- CHICKEN 'n' DUMPLINGS SIGN UPS click here
- Harvest Homecoming arrives the following week October 7 - 10. This is a perfect opportunity to work a shift with your family while you're downtown visiting the booths: CLICK HERE!

We have tentative plans to host our Religious Appreciation Dinner on the 25th. Then we close out the month with our Golf Outing to benefit Gibault at Valley View on the 30th. Busy, busy. And we have not even mentioned the Wheel of Cash every Wednesday and Pickleball every Tuesday and Thursday.

The dollars we can garner on the first half of the month will be our seed money to supplant our Thanksgiving Baskets and Christmas Breakfast expenses. What better way to continue our mission of charity in the footsteps of Blessed Father Michael J. McGivney?

Vivat Jesus!
Mike

Chaplain's Encouragement

In continued recognition of the “Year of St Joseph”, let’s look at some of the Scripture referring to St Joseph. “After three days they [Mary & Joseph] found Him [Jesus] in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard Him were astounded at His understanding and His answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, ‘Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety.’” (Luke 2:46-48).

On the surface, this account of the losing of the Christ child (or pre-teen) does not seem to be the best example for fathers and parents. There are enough anxieties about getting it ‘right’. Maybe there is comfort that even Mary and Joseph seemed to have had a few slip ups. But particularly for loving fathers, I think this account may give us keen insights into a more pressing and all too common experience among parents. Not the losing of a child (young or grown) physically, but spiritually.

Frequently, I have had to console parents when they feel the pain of a lost child – one who has distanced themselves or outright rejected the Catholic Christian faith. They’ve gotten lost, not so much among the caravan of family and friends, but in the current of the contemporary world. A world and culture that pulls and sidetracks our beloved family members. Whether young or grown, this kind of loss is just as much an anxiety for so many parents.

What did Joseph and Mary do when they found themselves with a lost child? What they did not do was panic or fear the worst. In a sense, this is good advice for us. Not to panic or give up hope. Yet, they were clearly concerned and anxious. You too should acknowledge your own fears. While you want your child in the Catholic Church where they can encounter Christ in Scripture & Sacraments, this trial is also a test of your own faith? How close to Christ are you? Does it show? Is your first or last response to go to the Lord in the “Temple” (i.e., in the Sacraments of the Eucharist and Confession). Panic and worry can be a sign of inner doubts. Pray, act, and trust in God. Mary and Joseph certainly did this...

WE ARE HERE TO SERVE YOU!

Behind everything a Knight does is the vision of our founder, Venerable Michael J. McGivney, and the mission he left us as Catholic men united in faith. We ask for his intercession, pray for his canonization, and live out in our own lives the principles he left us as Knights.

...They started looking nearby among family and friends in the caravan. These are people who might have known Jesus, and known when they last 'saw Him'. Asking among family and friends (not in a gossipy sort of way) about the well-being or struggles of a 'lost child' could be helpful. It's hard to know where to start if we don't know when they last were seen among us. Was it an event, an encounter, an error in understanding that led the lost one astray? Knowing, understanding, and empathizing can help build relationships to bring the lost home. It can direct you to areas you need to learn more and go deeper in the Faith.

I suspect Mary and Joseph did little else in those three days (think, foreshadowed days in the tomb) but look for Jesus. I suspect there was more than a little prayer and fasting going on, as they quickly retraced steps and returned to Jerusalem. Prayer and Fasting are two of the greatest ways to seek and find the lost. God is attentive to such prayer.

At last, Joseph and Mary searched for Jesus in the Temple. There He was safe, learning, questioning. When one is lost, they will ask questions. Some doubt, some struggles, some trying out of different things is normal and to be expected so that what is true can truly become the deep inner possession of the child.

Your (grown) child may in fact be lost. Not knowing which way is up or true north, but they are never utterly lost nor hidden from God. In fact, they are not lost or hidden from Mary or Joseph, who now from heaven see with the vision of Saints as God sees. They can now aid you in your search for your child and be intercessors for your child in their "finding."

In this Year of St Joseph, Pope Francis' invokes St Joseph to "guide us in the path of life" in his St Joseph Prayer (see below). Doing so is a prayer that St Joseph will guide us and keep us from getting lost. A blessed prayer for ourselves as well as our whole family.

As a Knight of Columbus, as fathers concerned for the physical and spiritual well-being of your 'lost' child, St Joseph is a great intercessor for you and your child. May St Joseph help to guide your lost child back to the path of Life, which is always the path that leads to Christ and the Church. Persistence, patience, and – no doubt – many prayers were offered by Mary and Joseph as they anxiously looked for Jesus. May their persistence, patience, and prayers aid you in your own search and encouragement for your own children.

One last, unrelated thought, November 2 is the Feast of All Souls. St Joseph, as the Patron of a Happy Death, is a great intercessor for all those whom we have lost from this life. Through St Joseph, may we pray they have been now found in the loving arms of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph.

Pope Francis ended Patris Corde – With a Father's Heart with the following prayer:

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,

Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

To you God entrusted his only Son;

in you Mary placed her trust;

with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,

show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life.

Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE CANONIZATION OF FATHER MCGIVNEY

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify your venerable servant Father Michael J. McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
